Harcourt Hamsa

Software Engineer
Lagos State, Nigeria

Summary

I am a detail-oriented engineer with a flair for design and a deep commitment to writing high-quality, performant code.

I currently create APIs, as well as web and mobile applications.
I've worked with Agile methodologies as well as testing, linting, Git workflows, continuous integration, and continuous deployment.

I also have technical writing experience and enjoy breaking down complex concepts into simple, straightforward articles.
